Steelers TRAINING CAMP HISTORY

THE STEELERS have held their annual training camp at several locations throughout club history before settling on their current camp home at Saint Vincent College. The 2014 season marks the 49th consecutive year that the Steelers have held their preseason training camp in Latrobe, Pa. The Steelers' 49-year tenure at Saint Vincent College ranks second (tied with Minnesota) in the NFL for training camp longevity, trailing only the Green Bay Packers, who have held their preseason camp at St. Norbert College in DePere, Wisc., for 57 years. The final two weeks of the Steelers' 1966 training camp were held at St. Vincent College after beginning camp at the University of Rhode Island.

The Steelers first full camp at St. Vincent College took place in 1967.

The following is a complete list of places where the Pittsburgh Steelers have held their training camps, along with the years they were there:

HEINZ KETCHUP

Bottles Facts: The bottles are exact replicas—down to the embossed "57" on the bottle's neck—of the Heinz Ketchup 14 ounce glass bottle. Each bottle includes 8,000 pounds of fiberglass, 375 feet of neon tubing and 20,500 light-emitting diodes (LEDs). Each Heinz Ketchup Bottle measures 35 feet X 9 feet and each weighs 8,000 pounds, both totaling 16,000 pounds, the equivalent of 53—300 pound NFL linemen. If the Heinz Ketchup bottles were filled with Heinz Ketchup, they would contain 1,664,000 fluid ounces each. That is enough to give each person seated at Heinz Field at least one 14-ounce bottle of ketchup to take home. If both bottles were emptied, the entire football field would be covered in 3/4 of an inch of ketchup. Approximately 4,500 footballs could fit into each scoreboard ketchup bottle.

All parties should be aware that the names submitted for the credentials must be the names that show up to the stadium with valid government-issued photo identification. Once the credentialed members of the media arrive at Heinz Field, their credential number will be on a security list and matched with a name.

Credentials cannot be transferred or altered on game days or days leading up to the game to reflect a credential user other than the person the credential was issued to by the Steelers organization.

Media who are assigned to cover every Steelers' home game may apply for season credentials. Season-long credentials will be distributed prior to the team's first preseason game.

Media who receive credentials on a game-by-game basis must pick up their credentials at Media Will Call located at Heinz Field next to the Steelers administrative offices entrance on Allegheny Avenue, across from the Carnegie Science Center. Government-issued photo identification is required to pick up credentials at Will Call.

Due to recommended security procedures, the Steelers do not mail out credentials.

Pittsburgh Steelers MEDIA GUIDELINES

TRAINING CAMP

Credentials

Media seeking credentials to the Steelers training camp at Saint Vincent College (Latrobe, Pa.) must first contact the team's media relations department for approval by emailing credentials@steelers.nfl.com. Guidelines will be provided at that time. The Steelers reserve the right to deny media credentials to the team's training camp. Requests will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis.

Check-in

All media covering Steelers training camp must immediately check in at the team's media relations office located at St. Benedict Hall. All media must present a valid photo ID for a media credential.

Credentialed media will receive access to designated areas of the Steelers training camp facility, including the media workroom in Benedict Hall, practice fields and the cafeteria. Interviews are prohibited in the team's cafeteria. Media members are prohibited from entering the players'/coaches' dormitory or locker room at any time.

Parking

Upon check-in media will be provided with a parking pass and will be directed to park in the upper parking lot behind the team's dormitories. Parking passes are required for all media attending Steelers training camp.

Interviews

All interview requests must be approved by the Steelers' media relations department.

Players are generally available on the field after each practice. Locker room access is prohibited during training camp. Interviews of any kind are prohibited in the team's cafeteria.

Coach Tomlin is generally available on the field on a daily basis after the team's final practice of the day. On the days when Coach Tomlin holds his weekly press conference, he will not be available to media after practice.

The team's Offensive, Defensive, and Special Teams Coordinators and assistant coaches are generally available after each practice with the approval of the Steelers' media relations department.

All interview requests for Steelers' owners, director of football operations or other football/non-football staff must first be approved by Steelers' media relations. Live shots are allowed in designated areas at Steelers' training camp. Steelers' media relations must be notified in advance of any TV live shots.

TV/radio sit-down interviews must be approved in advance by Steelers' media relations.

Media members are permitted to utilize all social networking tools (Twitter, Facebook, blogging, text alerts, etc.) only during practices that are open to the public.

Practice Field Access

Credentialed print and electronic media are allowed to watch Steelers practices in their entirety. All media must be at field level. Media are prohibited from watching practice from the hillside without prior approval from the team's media relations department. Videotaping any portion of practice from the hillside or other remote locations is strictly prohibited. All access guidelines will be explained to media upon arrival.

All photographers (still and video) are allowed to tape warm-ups and individual position drills. Photographers are prohibited from taping any one-on-one or team drills, including 7-on-7 drills or anytime players are in a team formation. All photographers are prohibited from any use of their cameras anywhere on Saint Vincent's campus other than the designated spots on the practice fields and outside of the cafeteria.

Media are allowed to tape stand-ups during the designated periods when video cameras may shoot practice, any other exceptions must be cleared through Steelers' media relations.

Media are prohibited from interacting with players and coaches during practice.

In the event of inclement weather, the team may be forced to practice indoors. Media may be allowed to attend indoor practices (at the team's discretion), but access will be limited.

Media are asked to silence cell phones and pagers before entering the practice area.

The Steelers reserve the right to change their access policy without prior notice.

IN SEASON/OFF-SEASON

Steelers Practice Facility

All Steelers daily football operations take place at the team's headquarters at the UPMC Sports Performance Complex and not at Heinz Field. Coaches and players are at Heinz Field only on game days.

All media visiting Steelers headquarters must sign in at the front desk upon arrival and receive a day badge. Badges must be worn at all times.

All media must remain in the team's media workroom while at the team's headquarters. The team's first and second floor lobby areas are not to be used for workspace or to conduct interviews.

Media are to access the practice fields from the first floor only.

Media setting up for sit-down interviews must be chaperoned to designated areas by Steelers' media relations.

Coaching offices and team meeting rooms are off limits to media. Interviews and any videotaping in the Steelers parking lot are prohibited. The team requires all interviews at the team's headquarters only be conducted in the team's locker room and other areas specifically designated by the team's media relations department.

While we understand the importance of breaking news, our expectation is that all media that cover the team will respect club policies that close walk-thru's and offseason workouts to the media, and that media will not resort to alternate means of recording those sessions even from a remote location. Media that continue to violate this request may have their access to the team's practice facility or on game days subject to review.

Steelers South Side Camera Credential Policy

The Pittsburgh Steelers require all visiting media who intend to use any type of electronic recording device to comply with the following policies when covering the team at club practices or events. The policies govern the online use of audio and video interviews and press conference content on non-game days and weekdays. These rules are designed to enable news organization websites to "illustrate" their coverage of the NFL with daily audio/video sound bites that supplement and complement the work of their reporters and columnists:

- All media members are required to wear credentials when on-site covering the Steelers at team headquarters.
- Camera operators may shoot video and still photos only in designated areas at the Steelers headquarters. These areas include and are limited to the practice field, locker room, media workroom and areas designated by the club's media relations department only. Still photographers do not have access to the locker room.
- Up to 90 seconds per day of audio and/or video of interviews or press conferences with NFL employees (including, but not limited to, players and coaches) or of team practice footage may be used on the Internet by credentialed news organizations. The content may not be used live and may be archived for no more than 24 hours. This applies to both game days and non-game days.

Video/audio material comprised entirely of a credentialed media organization employee providing commentary or analysis, including stand-up video/audio material shot on the field or at other stadium or club facility locations (subject to generally applicable safety and venue management restrictions or shooting locations and times), may be distributed via media organizations' Internet sites.

The usage conditions are as follows:

- The page featuring the audio/video must provide links to NFL.com and the corresponding club site. For example: For more info, go to www.nfl.com and www.steelers.com.
- The content may be used only in an editorial context (such as in links that illustrate stories or in multimedia news sections) and may not be presented in stand alone multimedia entertainment sections of third party websites.
- No integrated advertising is permitted. Footage may appear on pages with banners and contextual ads, but the ads may not be specifically related to the NFL audio/video content.

Practice Field Access

Only local Pittsburgh media are allowed to watch Steelers practices. All access guidelines will be explained to media upon arrival.

Out of town media are prohibited from watching any portion of the team's practices.

All photographers are allowed to tape warm-ups and individual position drills. Photographers are prohibited from taping any one-on-one or team drills, including 7-on-7 drills or anytime the players are in a team formation.

Media are allowed to tape stand-ups during the designated periods when video cameras may shoot practice.

Media may not shoot video of the team leaving the field at the end of practice.

Any other exceptions must be cleared through Steelers' media relations.

Media are prohibited from interacting with players and coaches during practice.

Media are asked to silence cell phones and pagers before entering the practice area.

The Steelers reserve the right to change their access policy without prior notice.

Media are to access the practice fields from the first floor only.

Interviews

All interview requests must be approved by the Steelers' media relations department. The Steelers ask that media respect the privacy of players/coaches/staff and refrain from approaching any members of the organization or their families at their places of residence. Media that continue to violate this request may have their access to the team's practice facility or on game days subjected to review.

Players are generally available in the locker room only at lunchtime and after practice on Wednesdays and Thursdays. Players are available in the locker room after practice only on Fridays. Player interviews are not to be conducted on the practice field or in other areas outside of the locker room, including the parking lot area, without prior approval from the Steelers' media relations department. Still photographers are not allowed in the Steelers' locker room.

Coach Tomlin will hold a weekly press conference every Tuesday at noon in the Steelers' media workroom. He will also be available after practice on Wednesdays and Thursdays (upon request) in the media workroom.

The team's Offensive, Defensive, and Special Teams Coordinators will generally be available on Thursdays. Assistant coaches are available only with the approval of the Steelers' media relations department. The best time to interview assistant coaches is as they leave the field after practice.

Head Coach

Mike Tomlin was named the 16th head coach in Pittsburgh Steelers history on January 22, 2007. Hired at the age of 34, Tomlin became only the third head coach hired by the Steelers since 1969.

Through seven seasons, Tomlin has accomplished many things that have never been done in the team's storied history. His 71-41 record (.634) is tied for the best start in franchise history, and he became the youngest head coach in NFL history to both coach in and win a Super Bowl when he led the Steelers to a 27-23 victory over the Arizona Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII. By winning the Super Bowl in only his second season as a head coach, he also became the fastest to win a Super Bowl title in Steelers history.

In Tomlin's seven years as head coach, he has guided the Steelers' defense to the NFL's top ranking in total defense four times, including most recently in 2012. He has also sent a total of 40 selections to the league's annual Pro Bowl, including two following the 2013 season. Additionally, Tomlin was appointed by Commissioner Roger Goodell to the NFL's Competition Committee in March, 2013.

Tomlin has reached the playoffs four times in his seven seasons, including two trips to the Super Bowl (XLIII and XLV).

Tomlin is one of only seven coaches in league history to win a Super Bowl within his first two seasons as an NFL head coach. Tomlin is the only head coach in Steelers history to lead the team to two Super Bowls in his first four seasons at the helm, including an appearance against the Green Bay Packers in Super Bowl XLV. He is one of only two Steelers head coaches to win three division titles in his first four seasons.

Tomlin is very active in the community and was recognized, along with his wife Kiya, in February, 2013, by the Chuck Cooper Foundation with the Career Achievement in Leadership Diversity and Community Service Award. He has also been a spokesman for the Steelers' and UPMC Sports Medicine's "Don't Hit the Head, Don't Use the Head" program, which is in conjunction with USA Football's Head's Up program that promotes safety in all levels of football. Tomlin is also a member of the All-Pro Dad Team and serves as an honorary chair for the annual Extra Mile golf outing, which provides support for parochial elementary schools educating children of inner-city families.

Arguably one of his best coaching performances may possibly have come in the second half of the 2013 season. Despite an 0-4 and 2-6 start to the season, the Steelers finished the regular season surging to a 6-2 second-half record, falling just short of the playoffs. However, he rallied the team despite numerous injuries on both sides of the ball, to stick together and finished second in the AFC North.

The 2013 campaign also saw quarterback Ben Roethlisberger, wide receiver and team MVP Antonio Brown and running back Le'Veon Bell break numerous regular-season records for the Steelers. Brown and safety Troy Polamalu were each selected to the Pro Bowl following the season.

In 2012, Tomlin led the Steelers to a 27-10 victory over the New York Jets in the home opener, becoming the first coach in team history to win his first six home openers. The Steelers finished the season with the top-ranked overall defense (275.8 ypg) and finished first in passing defense (185.2 ypg).

In 2011, Tomlin led the Steelers to a 12-4 record, marking the second straight season the team posted 12 wins, which was only the second time in team history it had been achieved. The Steelers finished the season with the top-ranked total defense (271.8 ypg) and scoring defense (14.2 ppg). Pittsburgh posted a 7-1 record at home in 2011, for the second time in Tomlin's career (2007). He also had five players (Roethlisberger, Mike Wallace, Maurkice Pouncey, Polamalu and Brown) selected to the Pro Bowl following the season.

Tomlin's seven road wins during the 2010 regular season tied a Steelers record previously set in 1978 and 2004. The Steelers finished second in total defense under Tomlin's guidance in 2010, allowing only 276.8 yards per game. Pittsburgh led the NFL and set a team record in rushing defense, yielding only 62.8 yards per game (1,004 yards), the third-best total in NFL history dating back to 1970. The Steelers also established an NFL record in 2010 by not allowing an opponent to rush for more than 75 yards in any of their first eight games during the regular season.

MIKE TOMLIN

In all, the Steelers' defense led the NFL in 2010 in rushing yards allowed(62.8 yds./game), points allowed (232), touchdowns (22), quarterback sacks (48), rushing average (3.0), yards per play (4.5) and yards allowed on first down (4.08). It finished second in the league in passing average (6.31), turnover advantage (+14) and red-zone efficiency (40.0, tied).

Under Tomlin, the Steelers broke new ground on offense in 2009. Pittsburgh's offense ranked seventh in the NFL (ninth passing, 19th rushing) but became the first unit in team history to boast a 4,000-yard passer (Roethlisberger), two 1,000-yard receivers (Hines Ward, Santonio Holmes) and a 1,000-yard rusher (Rashard Mendenhall) in the same season. Pittsburgh's defense ranked fifth in the NFL (third vs. run, 16th vs. pass) while leading the AFC and finishing one shy of the NFL lead with 47 quarterback sacks.

The Steelers continued to be dominant at Heinz Field under Tomlin in 2009. Pittsburgh finished with a 6-2 home record after finishing 7-1 (2007) and 6-2 (2008) at home during Tomlin's first two seasons.

Tomlin finished the 2008 season with a 12-4 record and his second consecutive AFC North Division title, becoming the only Steelers head coach to win division crowns in each of his first two seasons. He also set a record with 22 regular-season wins in his first two years at the helm and is the only Steelers head coach to win at least 10 games in each of his first two seasons. Tomlin's .688 winning percentage (22-10) after two years is the best in Steelers history.

The Steelers' defense was dominant under Tomlin's guidance in 2008, leading the NFL in total defense (237.2), pass defense (156.9), points per game (13.9), total yards per play (3.9), rushing yards per attempt (3.3), passing yards per attempt (4.7) and third-down efficiency (31.4), while finishing second in rushing defense (80.3).

Tomlin led the Steelers to a 10-6 record in 2007 and became just the second coach in team history to post a winning record, win a division title and earn a playoff berth in his inaugural season. Tomlin began his head coaching career by becoming only the second Steelers head coach to win his first three games. During 2007, the Steelers became just the fifth team in NFL history to win their first four home games by at least 20 points.

Tomlin guided the Steelers to the NFL's top-ranked defense in 2007, yielding only 266.4 yards per game. The Steelers' defense ranked third in the NFL against both the run (89.9 avg.) and the pass (176.5 avg.), and also finished third in the league in total yards allowed per play (4.6). Pittsburgh's defense led the NFL in passing yards per play (5.7) and first downs allowed per game (15.6), and finished second in the league in points allowed per game (16.8).

The Steelers' offense finished third in the NFL in rushing (135.5 avg.) during Tomlin's first season, sparked by Willie Parker, who led the league in rushing before injuring his leg in Week 16. Roethlisberger enjoyed a record-setting season during Tomlin's first year, establishing new team records for touchdown passes (32) and passer rating (104.1) while earning his first career Pro Bowl appearance.

Tomlin was the NFL's second-youngest head coach in 2007, and he became only the second Steelers' coach in team history to win at least 10 games during his first year at the helm. The Steelers posted a 7-1 record at home in 2007 and were 5-1 in the AFC North (3-0 at home).

Tomlin spent the 2006 season as the Minnesota Vikings' defensive coordinator. That season, the Vikings ranked eighth in the NFL in total defense and first against the run while not allowing a 100-yard rusher the entire season.

Tomlin was the defensive backs coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 2001-05. In 2002, Tomlin guided one of the most productive defensive backfields in the NFL, culminating with its performance in Super Bowl XXXVII. The secondary recorded four of the team's five interceptions, returning two for touchdowns, to help Tampa Bay capture the franchise's first Super Bowl title.

Before joining Tampa Bay's staff, Tomlin served two seasons as the defensive backs coach at the University of Cincinnati (1999-00). He took over a secondary that ranked 111th in the nation in pass defense in 1998 and helped them improve to 61st overall in his first season. Under Tomlin's direction in 2000, the Bearcats ranked eighth in the nation in interceptions as well as fourth nationally in total turnovers.

Prior to joining the Cincinnati staff, Tomlin had a short stint on the coaching staff at Tennessee-Martin and then spent two seasons at Arkansas State, coaching wide receivers in 1997 before switching to defensive backs in 1998. Tomlin spent the 1996 season as a graduate assistant at the University of Memphis, where he worked with the Tiger defensive backs and special teams units. He began his coaching career in 1995 as wide receivers coach at Virginia Military Institute.

Tomlin was a three-year starter at wide receiver at William & Mary (1990-94) and finished his career with 101 receptions for 2,054 yards and 20 touchdown catches. A first-team All-Yankee Conference selection in 1994, he established a school record with a 20.2 yards-per-catch average.

John Mitchell is in his 21st season as the Steelers' defensive line coach, ranking him as the longest-tenured current member of the Steelers' coaching staff. He remained with the team following Mike Tomlin's hiring in January of 2007, and was promoted to assistant head coach.

Mitchell joined the Steelers' coaching staff January 31, 1994, and is in his 42nd season of coaching, including 15 years at the college level and two in the United States Football League. This is his 24th season as an NFL coach.

Under his guidance, Pittsburgh's defensive front helped the Steelers lead the NFL in rush defense five times and finish in the top three on 13 separate occasions. The team only allowed one 100-yard rusher for a stretch of 50 straight regular-season games from 2007-10, and in 2010, the defense allowed just 62.8 rushing yards per game. That figure is a team record and is the third-fewest average in a single season out of any NFL team since the 1970 NFL merger.

In 2013, the Steelers' defensive line got a big spark from Cameron Heyward. He started a career-high 13 games, and he set career highs in tackles (63), sacks (5) and quarterback pressures (31). Heyward's 31 pressures led the team, and all of his five sacks came in the final nine games, a span where the Steelers went 6-3.

The Steelers' defensive line guided the group to tops in the NFL in total defense and second in rush defense, giving up 90.6 rushing yards per game in 2012. Defensive end Brett Keisel led the team with a career-high 40 quarterback pressures. He also led the line with 58 tackles and had the second-most sacks (4.5) in a single season in his career (5.5, 2006).

In 2011, the Steelers defense continued to dominate opposing offenses, only giving up 4.5 yards per play, 271.8 yards per game and 14.2 points per game, ranking first in the NFL in all three categories. Pittsburgh put on a defensive showcase in 2010 by leading the NFL in at least eight categories, including total sacks (48) and fewest points allowed (232). They became the first team in NFL history to hold their opponents to 75 or fewer rushing yards in each of their first eight games.

Strong play by Mitchell's line was a huge reason why the Steelers finished the 2008 regular season second overall in the NFL against the run. In 2009, Pittsburgh's defense ranked fifth in the NFL while leading the AFC and finishing one shy of the NFL lead with 47 sacks. Mitchell was instrumental in the development of five-time Pro Bowler Casey Hampton, who became the first Steelers' defensive linemen to be named Steelers' MVP or Co-MVP since Hall of Famer Joe Greene in 1970.

A former All-America defensive end for Alabama, Mitchell was the first African-American to play for the University of Alabama. Mitchell's early years in coaching were spent studying under two of college football's greatest coaches, as he was the defensive line coach under Paul "Bear" Bryant at Alabama (1973-76) and the defensive line coach at Arkansas (1977-82) under Lou Holtz.

In 1983, Mitchell made his first move to the professional level. From 1983-85 he served as the defensive line coach for the USFL's Birmingham Stallions. He returned to the college ranks in 1986 as the defensive ends coach at Temple University. Mitchell was then hired by Louisiana State University in 1987. He spent four years at LSU, coaching linebackers (1987-90). In 1990, Mitchell also served as LSU's defensive coordinator, becoming the first African American defensive coordinator in SEC history.

Mitchell joined the NFL ranks in 1991 with the Cleveland Browns, where he tutored two Pro Bowl defensive tackles, Michael Dean Perry and Rob Burnett. Mitchell accepted his current appointment following three seasons coaching the defensive line for the Browns.

A two-time All-American defensive end at Eastern Arizona Junior College from 1969-70, Mitchell then transferred to Alabama. A starter at defensive end from 1971-72, Mitchell earned All-America honors in 1972. He earned a bachelor's degree in social work in 1972, and in 2009 he was elected into the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame.

Born in Mobile, Ala., Mitchell and his wife, Joyce, live in Pittsburgh.

Todd Haley is in his third season as the Steelers' offensive coordinator, after being hired on February 7, 2012. Haley is in his 20th season in the NFL and 18th as a coach.

The Steelers offense had a lot of success in 2013. Pittsburgh scored at least 20 points in each of the last nine games, marking the first time the Steelers scored at least 20 points in at least nine regular-season games since 2002. The offense was instrumental in guiding the team to a 6-2 record over the final eight games.

Ben Roethlisberger and Antonio Brown each had record-setting seasons in 2013. Roethlisberger set single-season records for the most completions (375) and passing attempts (584), and he threw for the second-most passing yards in team history (4,261). Brown recorded the second-most receptions in a single season in team history (110) and set the single-season franchise record with 1,499 receiving yards. Brown was named Steelers MVP and earned his second trip to the Pro Bowl for his 2013 campaign.

The offense also got a big spark from rookie running back Le'Veon Bell, who recorded the most yards from scrimmage by a rookie in team history (1,259). Despite missing the first three games due to injury, Bell led the team in carries (244), rushing yards (860) and rushing touchdowns (8).

In 2012, his first season as offensive coordinator, the Steelers' offense finished second in the NFL in time of possession (32:07), fourth in red zone scoring (91.8%) and 10th in third-down efficiency (42%). Roethlisberger had one of his best seasons despite missing three games due to injury. He threw for 26 touchdowns, the third-most of his career, and he threw the second-fewest interceptions of his career (8).

In 2012, Haley's offense also aided Maurkice Pouncey and Heath Miller in earning selections to the Pro Bowl. Pouncey was also named to the USA Football All-Fundamentals Team. In addition to the Pro Bowl, Miller became the first tight end in team history to be named Steelers MVP. Miller led the team with 71 receptions and set career highs in receiving yards (816) and receiving touchdowns (8).

Prior to joining the Steelers, Haley was the head coach of the Kansas City Chiefs for the majority of three seasons (2009-11). In his second season as the Chiefs' head coach, the team completed the greatest single-season turnaround in franchise history, and the 2010 Chiefs reached the postseason for the first time since 2006. Following the club's highest win total since 2005, Haley was named the 101 AFC Coach of the Year voted on by national media members and was also awarded NFL Alumni Coach of the Year. The Chiefs' offense led the league in rushing yards, with 2,627 yards on 556 carries, after finishing 11th in rushing in 2009. The Chiefs also posted 27 touchdown passes, tying for the seventh-highest total in franchise history.

Before becoming head coach of the Chiefs, he served as the Arizona Cardinals' offensive coordinator for two seasons (2007-08). During his tenure with the Cardinals, the team won the club's first division title since 1975 and played in Super Bowl XLIII. Under Haley's guidance, Arizona's offense was one of the league's most explosive units. In 2008, Arizona tied for third in the league with a franchise record 427 points, finished fourth in total offense, averaging 365.8 yards per game and finished second in the league in passing offense. The Cardinals also became just the fifth team in NFL history to have three wide receivers eclipse 1,000 yards in the same season.

From 1999 to 2006, Haley spent time as wide receivers coach for the Dallas Cowboys, Chicago Bears and New York Jets, helping each team earn a playoff berth. Haley began his NFL career as an assistant in the Jets scouting department in 1995, where he scouted regionally and assisted in player evaluations.

Haley earned a degree in communications from the University of North Florida in 1991. In February of 2010, Haley was recognized with the Distinguished Alumni Achievement Award, the highest award given by the University of North Florida Alumni Association, recognizing those who have made a significant contribution to their profession, community and society. He was a member of the golf squads at the University of Florida and the University of Miami, and participated in the NCAA golf tournament during his time with the Gators.

Haley is the son of Dick Haley, former Director of Player Personnel for the Pittsburgh Steelers (1971-91). As a youth, Haley was a ball boy for the Steelers and attended Steelers training camps with his father. Alongside his father, Haley would watch the Steelers' game and practice film.

Haley was born in Atlanta, Ga., but attended Upper St. Clair High School in Pittsburgh, Pa. He and his wife, Chrissy, have four daughters, Taylor, Peyton, Kady and Ella, and one son, Richard Todd, Jr.

Dick LeBeau is in the 11th year of his second tour of duty with the Steelers, for whom he experienced much success during the mid-1990s as both the team's defensive backs coach and defensive coordinator.

Considered the architect of the Steelers' famed "Zone Blitz," LeBeau was named the Steelers' defensive coordinator on January 16, 2004, after spending the 2003 season with the Buffalo Bills. In LeBeau's 12 seasons as the Steelers' defensive coordinator (1995-96, 2004-13) Pittsburgh has won six division titles, four AFC Championships and two Super Bowls, while making the playoffs a total of eight times.

In all 12 seasons that LeBeau has served as defensive coordinator, the Steelers have finished top-15 in the league in total defense, including 10 times in the top-five and five times with the top overall ranked defense. Since the start of the 2004 season, LeBeau's defenses rank first in the NFL in numerous categories, including most sacks (415), fewest points allowed per game (17.4), fewest rushing yards per game (88.4) and fewest passing touchdowns allowed (176).

In 2009, LeBeau was recognized for his outstanding football career, both as a coach and player. In September, he was inducted into the Varsity O Alumni Association's Hall of Fame, honoring his career at Ohio State University and over 50 years in the NFL. Then in February of 2010, LeBeau was honored with the highest individual award in professional football when the Pro Football Hall of Fame announced him as a member of its Class of 2010 for his 14-year playing career as a cornerback for the Detroit Lions. LeBeau was enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, on Saturday, August 7, at Fawcett Stadium.

For the second straight season and fifth time since LeBeau returned to the Steelers in 2004, Pittsburgh finished with the number-one rated defense in the league in 2012. Dating back to 1970, the 2012 season was the second time (2008) that Pittsburgh finished in the top-two of fewest net yards, rushing yards and passing yards allowed. In addition, the Steelers had the number-one rated pass defense for the second-consecutive season, allowing 185.2 passing yards per game.

The Steelers ranked second in the NFL in rush defense in 2012, giving up 90.6 yards per game and limited teams to the fifth-lowest percentage (35.4) in the league on third-down conversions. Pittsburgh also held its opponent to 20 points or less in 11 games in 2012.

In 2011 the Steelers defense finished first in the league in total defense and pass defense. The secondary held nine teams to less than 175 net passing yards and only gave up 21 pass plays of 25+ yards, which tied for first in the NFL. Pittsburgh was the only team to record two shutouts in 2011, marking the fifth time since 1960 that Pittsburgh recorded multiple shutouts in a season. The defense also led the NFL in fewest points allowed (14.2), marking only the third time in team history that the Steelers gave up less than 15.0 points per game in back-to-back seasons (2010, 14.5)

DICK LEBEAU

The Steelers led the league in at least eight defensive categories in 2010 and shattered the team record for rushing yards per game allowed (62.8). The Steelers finished the season with 21 interceptions, the most since 1996, and Troy Polamalu was named AFC Defensive Player of the Year, becoming the second Steelers' player to earn the honor (James Harrison, 2008) with LeBeau as defensive coordinator.

LeBeau's defense had a season for the ages in 2008 as they led the league in a number of categories and wreaked havoc on a week-to-week basis on opposing offenses. The Steelers defense ended the season first in fewest yards allowed, pass defense and points per game, while finishing second in rush defense. The defense was led by Harrison, who won several major awards, including AP Defensive Player of the Year, after setting a franchise record with 16 sacks. LeBeau was named "Coordinator of the Year" by Sporting News following the 2008 season.

When LeBeau came back to the Steelers in 2004, his impact was profound as Pittsburgh returned to the top of the NFL in total defense and rushing defense. In 2005, his defensive game plans played an integral part in stopping four of the NFL's top five offenses in the AFC playoffs, including limiting Seattle to just 10 points in Super Bowl XL.

LeBeau is in the 56th year of his NFL career, 14 as a player and the past 42 as a coach. Prior to his return to Pittsburgh, LeBeau served one year as the assistant head coach with the Buffalo Bills and the previous two-plus years as the head coach of the Cincinnati Bengals.

After five seasons in Pittsburgh from 1992-96, when he coached the secondary (1992-94) and then was defensive coordinator (1995-96), LeBeau returned to Cincinnati as the Bengals' assistant head coach/defensive coordinator (1997-2000). He was later promoted to head coach on September 25, 2000 (after three games), and served in that capacity for two more seasons.

LeBeau began his coaching career as a special teams coach for the Philadelphia Eagles from 1973-75. He also was an assistant coach at Green Bay (1976-79) and Cincinnati (1980-83), before serving his first term as the Bengals' defensive coordinator from 1984-91.

Prior to entering the coaching ranks, LeBeau produced an outstanding pro career. He still holds the NFL record for most consecutive games played at cornerback (171), and is currently tied for eighth all-time with 62 career interceptions. His nine interceptions in 1970 led the NFC, and his 62 career interceptions ranked third in the NFL at the time of his retirement. LeBeau also appeared in three Pro Bowls.

He was born in London, Ohio. He and his wife Nancy have one son, Brandon Grant.

Danny Smith is in his second season with the Steelers as the special teams coordinator. Smith was hired on January 31, 2013.

In his first season with Pittsburgh, kicker Shaun Suisham and wide receiver Antonio Brown had special seasons. Suisham had a career year, connecting on 30-of-32 field goals, which are a career high and are tied for the third-most field goals made in a single season in Steelers' history. His 93.8 field goal percentage (minimum 15 attempts) also set a new single-season team record.

Brown, who also serves as the team's primary punt returner, was selected to the Pro Bowl as a return specialist and wide receiver for his 2013 efforts. He recorded a career-long 67-yard punt return for a touchdown in Week 15 versus Cincinnati, which was one of his five returns of 40 or more yards on the season.

Prior to joining Pittsburgh, Smith served as the Washington Redskins' special teams coordinator from 2004-2012. He helped establish Washington's special teams as one of the top coverage and return units in the NFL.

In 2012, linebacker Lorenzo Alexander, who played on Smith's special teams units, was selected to the Pro Bowl as the NFC's designated special teams player.

In 2011, Smith's special teams units ranked first in the NFC in kickoff return average allowed (20.8 yards) for the second consecutive season. Under his tutelage, Brandon Banks became one of the league's most consistent return men. Banks finished first in the NFL in kickoff returns (51) and kickoff return yards (1,174).

Also in 2011, Smith guided Graham Gano to a career season. Gano finished the season with a career-high 31 field goals made, which tied for the second-most field goals made in a single season in Redskins' history. In Week 9, Gano set a team record for the longest field goal, when he connected on a 59-yarder.

The Redskins finished first in the NFC in kickoff return average allowing 19.0 yards per return, and second in the NFC in opponent's average starting position on kickoffs (23.7-yard line) in 2010. In addition, Gano made three game-winning field goals in overtime, which established a team record and tied the NFL record.

Smith's 2009 special teams units finished third in kickoff return average and sixth in punt return average. The Redskins were only one of two teams in the NFL to finish in the top-six in each category.

Smith's teams also produced two of the biggest plays of the 2009 Redskins' season. Hunter Smith had an eight-yard touchdown run on a fake field goal in Week 1, and he threw a 35-yard touchdown in Week 10. In doing so, Smith became the first specialist in NFL history to rush for a touchdown and throw a touchdown in the same season.

In 2007, Smith aided long snapper Ethan Albright as he earned his first and only selection to the Pro Bowl to represent the NFC.

Smith's units ranked among the best in the NFL in 2006, finishing fourth in the NFL in kickoff coverage and eighth in the NFL in punt coverage. The season was filled with numerous special teams splash plays, including one kickoff return for a touchdown, one punt return for a touchdown, two blocked punts and one blocked field goal.

In Smith's second year with the team (2005), Washington finished second in the NFL in punt coverage and sixth in the NFL in kickoff coverage.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Smith was the special teams coordinator for the Buffalo Bills (2001-03), coached tight ends for the Detroit Lions (1999-2000), and he split duties as the defensive backs and special teams coach for the Philadelphia Eagles (1995-98).

Smith spent eight years (1987-94) as an assistant coach for Georgia Tech, where he coached running backs, wide receivers and defensive backs. He was on the staff for the Yellow Jackets' 1990 team that was named co-NCAA National Champions.

Smith played defensive back for Edinboro State from 1971-1975. His first collegiate coaching position came as a graduate assistant at his alma mater in 1976. Smith also was an assistant coach at Clemson University (1979), The College of William & Mary (1980-83) and The Citadel, the Military College of South Carolina (1984-86).

Born and raised in Pittsburgh, Smith attended Pittsburgh Central Catholic High School. He coached at Central Catholic (1977-78), helping tutor future Pro Football Hall of Fame quarterback Dan Marino. Smith is married to Elaine, of Ambridge, Pa. They have three children, Erin, Courtney and Jason.

Mike Munchak is in his first season as the offensive line coach for the Steelers after being hired on January 23, 2014.

Munchak is in his 33rd season in the NFL as a player or coach, having spent the previous 32 seasons with the Tennessee Titans/Houston Oilers organization, including the past three seasons as Tennessee's head coach. Munchak played for the Oilers from 1982-93 before joining the organization as a coach in 1994.

On August 4, 2001, Munchak was recognized for his outstanding playing career when he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

In his three seasons at the helm of the Titans, Munchak compiled a 22-26 record (.458). He posted 15 wins in his first two seasons as the Titans' head coach, which were the third-most wins by a coach in his first two full seasons with the team. Munchak's first season as head coach in 2011 saw the Titans finish with a 9-7 record, which was the team's first winning season since 2008 and made him one of only two rookie head coaches (Jim Harbaugh, San Francisco 49ers) to post a winning record in 2011.

Prior to taking over as head coach, Munchak spent 14 years (1997-2010) as Tennessee's offensive line coach. During his tenure, four of his offensive linemen totaled 10 Pro Bowl invitations and led the way for five different running backs to total an NFL-high 12 1,000-yard rushing seasons. The Titans ranked seventh in the league in rushing yards (124.5 yards per game) and finished in the top 10 in rushing seven times from 1997-2010. From 1997-2013, the Titans are the only team to produce 16 1,000-yard rushers.

In 2009, Munchak's offensive line group helped pave the way for a 2,000-yard rushing season by Chris Johnson. Johnson became only the sixth player in NFL history to reach that mark and was named the Offensive Player of the Year.

In Munchak's 14 seasons as offensive line coach, only twice did the team start the same five linemen from one season to the next. However, the Titans allowed the second-fewest sacks (28.3 per season) in the NFL from 1997-2010. In 2003, the offensive line provided protection for QB Steve McNair to garner NFL co-MVP honors.

Munchak began his coaching career with the Oilers as an offensive assistant in 1994, before officially becoming an offensive quality control coach for the 1995-96 seasons. Then Titans head coach Jeff Fisher promoted Munchak to offensive line coach prior to the start of the 1997 season, where he remained until he took over as the Titans' head coach in 2011.

The Oilers selected Munchak with the eighth pick in the 1982 NFL Draft, making him the first offensive lineman chosen that year. Munchak played guard for Houston for 12 seasons from 1982-93 and started 156 regular season games (seventh-most in franchise history) and 10 postseason contests. Munchak was selected to nine Pro Bowls (1984-85, '87-'93) during his career and was named to the NFL's 1980s "All-Decade" team. The team retired Munchak's number 63 jersey in 1996 and he was inducted into the Titans/Oilers Hall of Fame in 1999.

Munchak played his collegiate football at Penn State from 1979-81 and earned a business degree. Among his many honors, he is also a member of the Pennsylvania, Texas and Polish-American Sports Halls of Fame.

Munchak is a native of Scranton, Pa., and is married to Marci. They have two grown daughters, Alexandria and Julie.

Keith Butler is in his 12th year as the Steelers' linebackers coach. He was hired on January 28, 2003, after serving the previous four seasons (1999-2002) as the linebackers' coach of the Cleveland Browns. Butler remained on the Steelers' staff following Mike Tomlin's hiring in January of 2007.

Butler and Tomlin previously worked together at Memphis in 1996, when Butler coached the linebackers, defensive ends and special teams units, and Tomlin served as the Tigers' defensive backs coach.

Since Butler arrived, he has been instrumental in the development of the Steelers' highly touted linebacking corps. He was honored in 2008 when he was named NFL Linebacker Coach of the Year by Pro Football Weekly.

In 2013, linebackers Lawrence Timmons and Jason Worilds led a unit that lost two veterans, Larry Foote and LaMarr Woodley, to season-ending injuries. Timmons led the team with a career-high 155 tackles, the third time he recorded 100+ tackles in the last four seasons. Timmons also ended the season starting his team-best 53rd consecutive regular-season contest. Worilds led the team with a career-high eight sacks. He also finished second on the team with 29 quarterback pressures.

Butler's linebackers helped Pittsburgh's defense secure the NFL's number-one ranking in 2012. Five different linebackers each recorded four or more sacks in 2012 for the first time in team history, since sacks became an official statistic in 1982. Timmons had a memorable 2012 campaign, as he became the first Steeler to lead the team or tie for the team high in tackles, interceptions and sacks since Joey Porter in 2002.

The Steelers have a tradition of fielding some of the best pass-rushing linebackers in the NFL. In 2011, LaMarr Woodley was named AFC Defensive Player of the Month for October after he registered a league-high 7.5 sacks, 25 tackles and one interception. Pittsburgh registered 28 sacks at home in 2011, which were the second-most sacks at home (36 in 1996) since sacks became an official statistic in 1982.

Butler's guidance helped former Steeler James Harrison become one of the league's most elite performers. Harrison, the 2008 NFL Defensive Player of the Year, earned two straight team MVP awards (2007-08), recorded the longest play in Super Bowl history, a 100-yard interception return for a touchdown in Super Bowl XLIII, and five straight Pro Bowl Selections (2007-11). Harrison still holds the team record for sacks in a season, a career-high 16 in 2008.

Woodley owns an NFL record for posting two sacks in each of his first four postseason games, and his 57 career sacks are good for the fifth-highest total for a Steelers' player since sacks became an official statistic in 1982. Besides Harrison, Woodley is the only player in team history to record 10 or more sacks in a season for three straight years (2008-10). Harrison and Woodley have accounted for two of the top four sack totals by a Steelers' duo in team history. The two teamed up in 2008 to produce the most sacks in a single-season by a duo (27.5). In 2006, Butler's linebacking crew helped the Steelers' defense not allow a 100-yard rusher the entire season, and in 2005 led the AFC and ranked fourth in the NFL in total defense.

Prior to joining the Browns' staff, Butler spent nine years coaching in the college ranks, beginning at his alma mater, Memphis, where he coached linebackers from 1990-97, and also coached defensive ends and special teams (1995-97). He then served as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Arkansas State in 1998.

Butler, was selected by the Seattle Seahawks in the second round of the 1978 NFL Draft and played linebacker for 10 seasons (1978-87), all with Seattle. He started 132 of 146 games in his career, and still ranks second on the club's all-time tackles list with 813.

A three-year starter at inside linebacker for Memphis, Butler led the team in tackles his junior and senior seasons. He finished his collegiate career with 384 tackles and seven interceptions. He was named a 1977 Associated Press All-American and played in the 1977 Senior Bowl and Blue-Gray All-Star Game. Butler was born in Anniston, Ala. He and his wife Janet have three sons, Blake, Brandon and Brett.

James Daniel is in his 11th season with Pittsburgh after remaining with the team following Mike Tomlin's hiring in January of 2007. Daniel was named the Steelers' tight ends coach on January 24, 2004.

Under Daniel's guidance, Heath Miller has become one of the top tight ends in franchise history. Entering the 2014 campaign, Miller ranks in the top-10 in franchise history in receptions (third, 466), receiving yards (fifth, 5,273) and receiving touchdowns (fifth, 40). His receptions, receiving yards and receiving touchdowns are also the most by a tight end in team history.

For the fourth time in his career, Miller totaled at least 50 receptions (58) in 2013, and he registered more than 500 receiving yards (593) for the seventh straight season. He recorded a reception in all 14 games he played in 2013 to extend his personal-best streak to 81 regular-season games in which he has played in with at least one reception. Miller's team-best streak began during the 2008 season and is the second-longest streak in team history (Hines Ward, 186).

In 2012, Miller became the first Steelers' tight end to ever be selected as team MVP. He also was selected to his second career Pro Bowl. Miller's 71 receptions on the season led the team and ranked second in the AFC among tight ends, and he set career highs with 816 receiving yards and eight receiving touchdowns.

In 2010, Miller was named an offensive co-captain for the first time in his career, following his 2009 Pro Bowl season. In 2009, he broke the team's single-season record for receptions by a tight end, recording 78. Miller also posted his second career 100-yard receiving game, marking just the 12th time in team history that a tight end recorded 100+ receiving yards in a single game.

In 2007, Daniel groomed a young group of tight ends that finished the season with 11 receiving touchdowns, which are the most combined receiving touchdowns of any Steelers' tight end corps in team history.

During his tenure with the Atlanta Falcons (1997-2003), Daniel was instrumental in the development of Pro Bowler Alge Crumpler. Daniel began his NFL coaching career as the tight ends coach of the New York Giants from 1993-96. However, Daniel's first experience in the NFL came through the NFL's Fellowship Program in 1988 with the New Orleans Saints, and in 1992 with the Denver Broncos, who were led by Head Coach Dan Reeves. Daniel served under Reeves for his first 11 years in the NFL.

He began his coaching career in the college ranks as the offensive line coach at Auburn University (1981-92) for Head Coach Pat Dye. During Daniel's 12 years at Auburn, the Tigers appeared in nine postseason bowl games, four of his linemen earned All-America honors and several were selected All-SEC.

Prior to Auburn, Daniel coached for seven years at Enterprise High School (Enterprise, Ala.) from 1974-80. During his tenure, 11 of his offensive linemen earned college scholarships.

A native of Wetumpka, Ala., Daniel was a three-year starter (offensive guard) and four-year letter winner at Alabama State University from 1970-73. Daniel is married to Myrtis.

Randy Fichtner is in his fifth season coaching the Steelers' quarterbacks after spending three seasons as the team's wide receivers coach. Fichtner was hired by Mike Tomlin on January 29, 2007.

In Fichtner's four seasons (2010-13) as quarterbacks coach, Ben Roethlisberger has thrown for 14,803 yards and 92 touchdowns for a passer rating of 93.6. In addition, Roethlisberger has a completion percentage of 63.2, has thrown 103 passes of 25+ yards and has a record of 35-21 in the regular season. In the four seasons under Fichtner's guidance, Roethlisberger has recorded four of his top five highest season averages when it comes to passing yards per game.

In 2013, Roethlisberger had one of the best statistical regular seasons of his career. He recorded the most completions (375) and attempts (584) in a single season. He also totaled the second-most passing yards (4,261) and second-most passing touchdowns (28) in a single regular season. Roethlisberger was named AFC Player of the Month for November and earned AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors for his Week 11 performance versus Detroit.

Roethlisberger was selected to his second career Pro Bowl after the 2011 season, when he registered the third-most passing yards in franchise history (4,077) and the third-most completions (324), while playing in only 15 games. He was twice named AFC Offensive Player of the Week, recorded five 300+ passing yard games and broke the team's all-time record for career completions (2,090).

In Fichtner's final year as wide receivers coach in 2009, the Steelers had two 1,000-yard receivers. Hines Ward posted his club record sixth 1,000-yard receiving season, while Santonio Holmes posted his first career 1,000-yard receiving season. Rookie Mike Wallace led all AFC rookies with 756 receiving yards and added six touchdowns.

His receiving corps had an excellent season in 2008 as Ward topped 1,000 yards (1,043) for the fifth time in his career, and Holmes was named MVP of Super Bowl XLIII after catching nine passes for 131 yards, including the game-winning touchdown reception with 35 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter.

Fichtner, who instituted the spread offense at Memphis, was an integral part of the Tiger football team for six years. He was hired in 2001 to serve as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach, and his offense re-wrote the Memphis record book for six seasons.

In 2004, All-American running back DeAngelo Williams led an offense that finished the year ranked ninth nationally in total offense and 10th in the nation in scoring. Fichtner was a part of unprecedented offensive success at Memphis that also contributed to the Tigers playing in three straight bowl games from 2003-05.

Fichtner was no stranger to Memphis when he joined the staff in 2001. He had previously served as an assistant. Prior to his second stint at Memphis, Fichtner spent four years (1997-2000) at Arkansas State University. He arrived in Jonesboro as the quarterback coach in the spring of 1997 and was promoted to offensive coordinator in August of 1997. During his tenure with the Indians, Fichtner worked with Cleo Lemon, who set virtually every Arkansas State passing and total offense record.

Prior to joining the staff at Arkansas State, Fichtner spent three years at his alma mater, Purdue University, serving as wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator from 1994-96. His original stint with Memphis came from 1990-94, when he coached wide receivers and quarterbacks. During his tenure, Fichtner worked with future NFL All-Pro Isaac Bruce.

Fichtner worked as a student assistant and graduate assistant at Purdue (1985-86) and at the University of Michigan (1986-87), before serving as a volunteer coach at the University of Southern California in 1988. He landed his first full-time position in 1989 as the tight ends coach at UNLV, and worked for the Rebels for one season before going to Memphis.

A native of Cleveland, Ohio, Fichtner was a standout football player at Meadville Area Senior High School in Meadville, Pa. He played defensive back at Purdue and graduated in 1985 with a bachelor's degree in health promotion. Fichtner is married to the former Jennifer Parker of Covington, Tenn., and the couple has three children, a son, Nathaniel Ross, and two daughters, Shelby Brooke and Kirby Lynn.

Carnell Lake is in his fourth season with the Steelers as the team's defensive backs coach. He was hired by the Steelers on March 7, 2011.

In each of Lake's three seasons as defensive backs coach, the Steelers finished in the top-10 in pass defense, marking the first time since 1999-2001 that the Steelers finished in the top-10 in pass defense three straight years.

The Steelers' secondary finished top-10 in the league in 2013 in numerous categories, including completion percentage allowed (fifth, 57.8), fewest passing first downs allowed (fifth, 174), fewest passing touchdowns allowed (tied-seventh, 21), fewest yards per pass attempt (eighth, 6.59) and fewest pass plays of 25+ yards allowed (tied-eighth, 25).

Safety Troy Polamalu guided the veteran group in 2013, and earned his eighth Pro Bowl selection for his efforts. Polamalu set a single-season career-high with five forced fumbles. He returned one interception for a touchdown to become just the fifth player in team history to record five career defensive touchdowns. For the third time in his career, he registered at least one sack, one interception, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery in the same regular season (2005, 2010). He was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week for his Week 12 performance at Cleveland.

In 2012, the Steelers' secondary led a defense that finished first in the NFL in pass defense for the second straight season, allowing 185.2 passing yards per game. The Steelers' secondary was part of a defense that also allowed the fewest yards per pass attempt (6.04), the fewest pass plays of 25+ yards (19) and the second-fewest yards allowed after the catch (1,376).

In Lake's first season in 2011, he coached the Steelers' secondary that held 10 teams to 170 net passing yards or less during the regular season. Pittsburgh only gave up 21 pass plays of 25+ yards in 2011, which tied for the fewest allowed in the NFL.

Lake played safety and cornerback for the Steelers (1989-98), the Jacksonville Jaguars (1999-00) and the Baltimore Ravens (2001). Following his retirement from football after the 2001 season, Lake worked in a private business before starting his career in coaching with the Philadelphia Eagles during their 2009 training camp and as an intern with the Green Bay Packers in 2010.

Lake was selected by the Steelers in the second round (34th overall) of the 1989 NFL Draft and won the Joe Greene Great Performance Award, given annually to the Steelers' top rookie. Lake went on to earn five Pro Bowl trips (four with the Steelers and one with the Jacksonville Jaguars). He finished his Steelers' career with 15 fumble recoveries and 16 interceptions. In 1997 Lake was named AFC Defensive Player of the Year, and was later named to the NFL 1990s All-Decade Team.

A three-year starter for the Bruins at outside linebacker, Lake was a first-team All-America selection as a senior (1988) as well as earning the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame Scholar Athlete Award. He was inducted into the UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame in 2000. Lake finished his college career with 45.5 tackles for loss and 25.5 sacks.

Born in Salt Lake City, Utah, Lake moved to California and attended Culver City High School (Culver City, Calif.). He and his wife, Monica, have three children, Siena, Quentin and Austin.

Richard Mann is in his second year as the Steelers' wide receivers coach, after being hired on February 13, 2013. Mann is entering his 30th season as an assistant coach in the NFL.

In Mann's first season as wide receivers coach, his wide receiving corps contributed to an offense that produced the third-most passing yards (4,306) in a single season in franchise history. Antonio Brown had a season for the ages in 2013. He finished with the second-most receptions in a single season (110), set a team record for most receiving yards in a single season (1,499) and added a career-high eight receiving touchdowns. Brown became the first player in NFL history to register at least five receptions and 50 receiving yards in all 16 games of a regular season. He was named Steelers' MVP for the second time in three seasons (2011), earned his second trip to the Pro Bowl (2011) and was named second-team All-Pro by the Associated Press.

Veteran Jerricho Cotchery recorded his 400th career reception and surpassed 5,000 career receiving yards during his 2013 campaign. He led the team with 10 receiving touchdowns, which tied for the ninth-most touchdowns in team history in a single season. Emmanuel Sanders also had the finest season of his young career, setting career highs in receptions (67), receiving yards (740) and receiving touchdowns (6).

Prior to joining Pittsburgh, Mann had been assisting and consulting players as they prepare for the NFL Draft as well as coaching in All-Star games. He coached wide receivers for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 2002-09, and also served as assistant head coach in his final year in 2009. From 2002-08, the Buccaneers had at least one 1,000-yard receiver in each season, which is the longest streak in franchise history. Under Mann's guidance, the Buccaneers consistently had one of the top wide receivers in the NFL every season.

One of those receivers was Antonio Bryant. In 2008, Bryant led the team in receptions, receiving yards and receiving touchdowns. For his efforts, he was named Comeback Player of the Year by The Sporting News.

From 2005-07, Joey Galloway had three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons, to become the first player in Buccaneers' history to accomplish the feat. Galloway recorded a career-high 1,287 receiving yards in 2005. During that year, he surpassed the 1,000-yard mark in 11 games, which is the fastest in franchise history.

In 2003, Mann's receiving corps guided the Buccaneers' offense to finish top-10 in the NFL for only the second time in team history. And in 2002, his group totaled 184 receptions for 2,281 yards and 16 touchdowns, helping guide the team to its first and only Super Bowl (XXXVII) victory over the Oakland Raiders.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Mann served as the wide receivers coach for the Washington Redskins (2001), the Kansas City Chiefs (1999-2000) and the Baltimore Ravens (1997-98). He also was an assistant with the New York Jets (1994-96) where he coached the wide receivers (1994, 1996) and both the tight ends and wide receivers (1995).

From 1985-93, Mann served as an assistant coach for the Cleveland Browns. In his first season with the Browns, he coached both the tight ends and wide receivers, and then coached the wide receivers the remainder of his time with Cleveland. During his tenure, Mann coached Hall of Famer Ozzie Newsome and Pro Bowler Webster Slaughter. He got his first NFL coaching job with the Baltimore/Indianapolis Colts (1982-84), coaching wide receivers.

Prior to joining the NFL ranks, Mann served as an assistant at the University of Louisville (1980-81) and at his alma mater, Arizona State University (1974-79). He was a three-year starter for the Sun Devils from 1966-68.

Mann is a native of Aliquippa, Pa. He attended Aliquippa High School and was part of the team's 1964 WPIAL Championship team. Mann coached at Aliquippa from 1970-1973, starting out at the junior high level and then working his way to the high school level, where he coached wide receivers. Mann is a member of the Aliquippa and the Beaver County (Pa.) Halls of Fame. He and his wife, Karen, have four children, daughters Deven and Brittany, and sons Richard II and Mario. Richard II is currently a pro scout for the Washington Redskins.

James Saxon is in his first season as the running backs coach for the Steelers after being hired on January 28, 2014.

Saxon is in his 23rd season in the NFL as either a player or a coach. He spent the past three seasons coaching running backs for the Minnesota Vikings.

In his 14 years as an NFL running backs coach, Saxon has helped his backs reach the Pro Bowl 11 times and has had a running back surpass the 1,000-yard rushing mark in a single season eight times.

With Minnesota, Saxon tutored one of the top rushers in NFL history in Adrian Peterson. The 2013 season saw Peterson surpass the 1,000 rushing yard mark for the second consecutive season and the sixth time in his seven year career and earn his sixth trip to the Pro Bowl.

In 2012, Saxon helped guide Peterson to the second-best single-season rushing performance in NFL history with 2,097 yards and a first-team All-Pro selection. That year, Peterson became only the third player in Minnesota history to be named NFL MVP and was also named the NFL Offensive Player of the Year. Peterson set or tied numerous team and league records in 2012, including the most rushing yards in the month of December (861) in NFL history and his 10 games of more than 100 rushing yards tied his own team record (2008). Peterson also tied Barry Sanders' record (1997) of seven runs of 50+ yards and tied Earl Campbell's record (1980) of seven games with 150-plus rushing yards. In addition to Peterson's accolades, FB Jerome Felton was a second-team All-Pro selection and earned a Pro Bowl spot for the first time in his career.

In Saxon's first year with Minnesota in 2011, the team finished fourth in the NFL with 2,318 rushing yards. Peterson led the team with 970 yards and became the team's all-time leader in rushing touchdowns. Saxon helped RB Toby Gerhart rush for a career-high 531 yards that season, filling in for Peterson when he was sidelined with injuries.

Prior to Minnesota, Saxon spent three seasons (2008-10) coaching running backs for the Miami Dolphins, including Ricky Williams and Ronnie Brown, who he helped reach the Pro Bowl following the 2008 season. In 2009, the Dolphins finished with the NFL's fourth-best rushing attack (139.4 yards per game) and Williams led the team with 1,121 rushing yards. The Dolphins also used Brown and Williams in the Wildcat package as a wrinkle in their offense.

Saxon spent seven seasons (2001-07) with the Kansas City Chiefs, helping a trio of the top backs in franchise history (Priest Holmes, Larry Johnson and Tony Richardson) earn seven Pro Bowl selections. Holmes and Johnson totaled five 1,000-yard rushing seasons between them in Saxon's tenure. Holmes and Johnson also rank first and second, respectively, in team history in career yardage and own four of the top single-season rushing totals in team history, including Johnson's team-record 1,789 yards in 2006.

The 2003 season saw Holmes set the Kansas City single-season record with 27 rushing touchdowns, which at the time was also an NFL record. Holmes played his entire career under Saxon, finishing with 24 100-yard rushing games, which was later topped by Johnson's 30 such performances.

Saxon broke into the NFL as a running backs coach with the Buffalo Bills in 2000, after spending three seasons in the collegiate ranks. Saxon spent a season as a volunteer assistant coach at Menlo College in 1999 and spent two seasons coaching running backs at Rutgers University (1997-98).

Saxon was a sixth round draft choice (139th overall) by the Kansas City Chiefs in 1988. He spent eight seasons as an NFL running back, playing for the Chiefs (1988-91), Dolphins (1992-94) and Philadelphia Eagles (1995). For his career, Saxon played in 111 games, carrying 145 times for 533 yards and five touchdowns. He also caught 69 career passes for 515 yards.

Saxon began his collegiate career at American River Junior College (1984-85). He then transferred to San Jose State University (1986-87), where he totaled 609 rushing yards and nine touchdowns on 118 carries in two seasons. He recorded 78 receptions for 732 yards and four touchdowns, while also throwing four touchdown passes.

A native of Beaufort, S.C., Saxon attended Battery Creek High School in Burton, S.C. He is married to Shannon and their son, Devin, played football at Harvard.

Game 1 TENNESSEE 16 PITTSBURGH 9

SEPTEMBER 8, 2013 HEINZ FIELD (61,585)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers lost their 2013 home opener to the Tennessee Titans, 16-9. It marked the Steelers first home-opening loss since the 2002 season.

On the opening kickoff, Titans RB Darius Reynaud fielded the ball just outside the goal line, and then took a knee into the end zone for a safety. It marked the first time that there was a safety on the opening kickoff since September 18, 1988 (New York Giants vs. Dallas Cowboys).

Midway through the second quarter, QB Ben Roethlisberger's pass to WR Emmanuel Sanders was picked off by CB Alterraun Verner. Tennessee then went 49 yards on 12 plays on a drive that took up almost seven minutes of clock time. RB Jackie Battle scored on a three-yard run to cap off the drive and give the Titans a 7-2 lead.

Late in the third quarter, K Rob Bironas connected on a 26-yard field goal to give the Titans a 10-2 lead. Bironas made a 44-yard field goal midway through the fourth quarter to extend Tennessee's lead, 13-2. And with less than four minutes remaining in the game, Bironas connected on a 27-yard field goal to give the Titans a 16-2 lead.

Late in the game, Roethlisberger led the team on a nine-play, 75-yard drive that was capped off with a four-yard touchdown pass to WR Jerricho Cotchery. On the drive, Roethlisberger surpassed 30,000 passing yards to become just the 35th quarterback in NFL history to throw for at least 30,000 yards.

Despite the loss, the Steelers' defense held its opponent to less than 17 points for the ninth-consecutive home opener. Dating back to last season, this marked the seventh game in a row where the Steelers' defense did not allow a single touchdown in the first quarter of a game.

CINCINNATI — The Steelers lost their AFC North opener, 20-10, to the Cincinnati Bengals at Paul Brown Stadium.

Suisham connected on his fourth field goal of the game, this one from 32 yards out to give the Steelers the decisive 19-6 win. OCTOBER 20, 2013 HEINZ FIELD (62,295)

PITTSBURGH — K Shaun Suisham connected on a 42-yard field goal as time expired to give the Steelers a 19-16 victory over division rival, the Baltimore Ravens.

Pittsburgh scored first midway through the first quarter. QB Ben Roethlisberger led the team on a 10-play, 60-yard drive that was capped off by a three-yard shovel pass to TE Heath Miller. The touchdown was the 40th in Miller's career, as he became just the fifth player in team history to record at least 40 receiving touchdowns.

Baltimore's K Justin Tucker made a 46-yard field goal near the end of the first quarter to cut the lead, 7-3. Suisham connected on his first field goal of the game, a 34-yarder, early in the second quarter to increase Pittsburgh's lead, 10-3. Right before halftime, Tucker connected from 38 yards out, and the Steelers went into halftime with a 10-6 lead.

The only points in the third quarter came from Suisham, as he made a 28-yard field goal late in the period to increase the Steelers lead, 13-6. Both teams exchanged field goals, as Tucker made a 32-yarder early in the fourth quarter and then Suisham followed it up with a 38-yarder.

With Pittsburgh leading 16-9, the Ravens started at their own 27-yard line. QB Joe Flacco led the team on a 16-play, 73-yard drive that took up eight minutes of clock time. Flacco found TE Dallas Clark for a one-yard score to tie the game, 16-16.

But Roethlisberger had more than enough time to lead his team down the field. Roethlisberger led the group 39 yards to set up Suisham's game-winning kick. It marked the 28th time during the regular season that Roethlisberger led the team to victory when facing a fourth-quarter deficit or tie.

DECEMEBER 29, 2013 HEINZ FIELD (56,361)

PITTSBURGH — Pittsburgh ended its 2013 campaign with three straight wins, including a 20-7 victory over the Cleveland Browns in the season finale at Heinz Field. With the win, the Steelers recorded at least eight victories for the 10th straight regular season.

On the Steelers' first drive, QB Ben Roethlisberger and WR Jerricho Cotchery connected on two straight plays. First, Roethlisberger and Cotchery converted a third-and-10 with a 12-yard pass, and on the very next play, Roethlisberger threw a nine-yard touchdown pass to Cotchery. It marked Cotchery's team-leading 10th receiving touchdown of the season.

Late in the second quarter, RB Le'Veon Bell scored on a five-yard run to give the Steelers a 14-0 advantage. Bell finished the game with 96 yards from scrimmage to give him 1,259 on the season, passing Franco Harris (1,235) for the most yards from scrimmage by a rookie in a single-season in team history.

K Shaun Suisham made a 30-yard field goal in the third quarter and a 32-yarder in the fourth quarter to give Pittsburgh a 20-0 lead. Suisham finished the season 30-of-32 on field goals, which are the third-most made field goals in a single-season in franchise history. His FG percentage of 93.8 was a franchise best (min. 15 att.) in the regular season.

Cleveland RB Fozzy Whittaker scored on a 35-yard touchdown pass from QB Jason Campbell late in the contest to prevent the Pittsburgh shutout.

WR Antonio Brown finished with game-highs in receptions (9) and receiving yards (87). Brown became the first player in NFL history to record at least five receptions and 50 receiving yards in all 16 regular-season contests.

HISTORY

PITTSBURGH STEELERS

STEELERS History

The fifth-oldest franchise in the NFL, the Steelers were founded on July 8, 1933, by Arthur Joseph Rooney. Originally named the Pittsburgh Pirates, they were a member of the Eastern Division of the 10-team NFL. The other four current NFL teams in existence at that time were the Chicago (Arizona) Cardinals, Green Bay Packers, Chicago Bears and New York Giants.

One of the great pioneers of the sports world, Art Rooney passed away on August 25, 1988, following a stroke at the age of 87. "The Chief", as he was affectionately known, is enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame and is remembered as one of Pittsburgh's great people.

Born on January 27, 1901, in Coultersville, Pa., Art Rooney was the oldest of Daniel and Margaret Rooney's nine children. He grew up in Old Allegheny, now known as Pittsburgh's North Side, and until his death he lived on the North Side, just a short distance from Three Rivers Stadium.

Rooney attended St. Peter's Parochial School and Duquesne University Prep School. He studied collegiately at Indiana (Pa.) Normal, which is now Indiana University of Pennsylvania, as well as at Georgetown and Duquesne.

An exceptional all-around athlete, Rooney held middleweight and welterweight titles from the AAU Boxing Championships and was named to the U.S. Olympic Boxing Team in 1920, although he did not participate in the Olympic Games. He played minor league baseball from 1920-25 before a promising career was cut short by an arm injury. Rooney continued playing football for several semi-pro teams in the Pittsburgh area. He was married on June 11, 1931, to Kathleen McNulty, and the couple had five sons — Daniel, Art Jr., Tim, John and Pat. In 1964, Rooney was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame for his contributions to the growth of the NFL and the Pittsburgh Steelers.

By the mid-1960s, Rooney had begun to turn over much of the operation of the Steelers to his oldest son, Dan. After having worked in every area of the organization since 1955, Daniel M. Rooney was named president of the Steelers in 1975. In 2000, Dan Rooney was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He joined his his father Art to form only the second father-son tandem to be inducted into the Hall of Fame. The late New York Giants owners Wellington Mara and his father Tim were the first.

Dan Rooney spent 54 consecutive years with the organization before being named U.S. Ambassador to Ireland in 2009 by President Barack Obama. Rooney was required to move to Ireland in 2009 to fulfill his duties as ambassador.

As an NFL owner, Dan Rooney was widely recognized as one of the league's most influential executives and one of Pittsburgh's leading contributors to civic affairs. Among his community activities, Dan Rooney is a board member for The American Ireland Fund, The Pittsburgh History and Landmarks Foundation and The Heinz History Center.

Dan Rooney has been a member of several NFL committees over the past 30-plus years. He has served on the board of directors for the NFL Trust Fund, NFL Films and the Scheduling Committee. He was appointed chairman of the Expansion Committee in 1973, which considered new franchise locations and directed the addition of Seattle and Tampa Bay as expansion teams in 1976.

In 1976, Rooney was also named chairman of the Negotiating Committee, and in 1982 he contributed to the negotiations for the Collective Bargaining Agreement for the NFL and the Players' Association. He again played a key role in the labor agreement reached between NFL owners and players in 1993. Rooney was also largely responsible for developing the realignment plan and scheduling format that the NFL adopted prior to the 2002 season. In October 2002, he was named chairman of the NFL's Diversity in the Workplace Committee. Rooney is also Chairman of the Hall of Fame Committee. In February 1999, he was named the recipient of the Philadelphia Maxwell Football Club's Francis J. "Reds" Bagnell Award for outstanding contributions to the game of football.

Daniel M. Rooney was born on Pittsburgh's North Side on July 20, 1932. He is a 1950 graduate of North Catholic High School, where he played quarterback on the varsity football team. He went on to graduate from Duquesne University in 1955 with a bachelor of arts degree in accounting. Rooney and his wife Patricia live on the North Side. The Rooneys have nine children and 17 grandchildren.

Dan Rooney was named Steelers' Chairman Emeritus in July 2009 after he was named United States Ambassador to Ireland. Rooney served as United States Ambassador until late 2012. He returned to the Steelers and currently serves as chairman.

In 2003, Dan Rooney officially turned over the title of Steelers' team president to his oldest son, Art Rooney II, who had previously served as the team's vice presdent and general counsel. Art II also previously served as Chairman of the Board of Klett Rooney Lieber & Schorling (now Buchanon Ingersoll), Attorneys at Law. A 1978 graduate of the University of Pittsburgh where he majored in political science, Art II received his law degree from Duquesne University School of Law in 1982. He currently serves as Chairman of the NFL's Stadium Committee, and serves on numerous NFL boards, including the Legislative Committee, the Management Council Executive Committee, the International Committee, the NFL Foundation and the Digital Media Committee. His many charitable contributions include sitting on the boards of the Children's Museum of Pittsburgh, the Pittsburgh Public Theater, the Extra Mile Education Foundation, the United Way of America (Allegheny County, Pennsylvania) and numerous other ventures. He and his wife Greta have four children.

STEELERS History

1930s After founding the Pirates in 1933, Art Rooney watched his club struggle through its first seven seasons with just 22 wins and five different head coaches. While home games were played at Forbes Field, Rooney often took his team to such cities as Johnstown, Latrobe, Youngstown, New Orleans, and Louisville in the 1930s due to competition with baseball and college football.

In 1938 Rooney signed Colorado All-America Byron "Whizzer" White to a $15,800 contract, making White the first "big money" player in the NFL. White led the league in rushing that year and became one of the NFL's most illustrious alumni. He served 31 years as a Justice of the United States Supreme Court before retiring in 1993.

Rooney hired legendary Pitt coach Jock Sutherland in 1946, and Dudley returned from the war to earn NFL MVP honors, leading the league in rushing, interceptions, and punt returns. Today, Dudley is a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Sutherland led the 1947 Steelers to an 8-4 record and a share of the Eastern division title, but they lost their first-ever postseason game, 21-0, to Philadelphia. Sutherland died suddenly the following spring while on a scouting trip.

1943 STEAGLES PLAYERS

1940s In 1940 Rooney changed the team name to the Pittsburgh Steelers, representing the heritage of Pittsburgh. The first winning record in the organization's history came in 1942 when head coach Walt Kiesling led the Steelers to a 7-4 finish with the league-leading rushing of rookie Bill Dudley. But the next year Dudley joined the Armed Forces along with many other NFL players as the nation went to war. With rosters depleted, Rooney merged the Steelers with the Philadelphia Eagles in 1943 (Phil-Pitt "Steagles") and with the Chicago Cardinals (Card-Pitt) in 1944.

1950s Succeeding Sutherland, John Michelosen was head coach for the 1948-51 seasons, compiling a 20-26-2 record. In 1952 Joe Bach returned for his second stint with the Steelers, having coached the team previously in 1935-36. The Steelers became the last team to abandon the single wing for the T-formation in 1952.

Bach resigned for health reasons following the 1954 season and was replaced by assistant coach Walt Kiesling, who had been the Steelers' head coach twice previously. Kiesling's three stints covered the 1939-40, 1941-44, and 1954-56 campaigns.

Lowell Perry becomes the NFL's first African-American assistant coach.

1938
Byron "Whizzer" White paid an unheard-of $15,800 to play one season for the Steelers.

1940
The Pittsburgh Pirates are officially renamed the Pittsburgh Steelers.

1943
The Pittsburgh Steelers merge with the Philadelphia Eagles to form the "Steagles" as many rosters were depleted due to World War II.

1947
December 21 – The Steelers play their first postseason game, a 21-0 setback to the Philadelphia Eagles in the Eastern Division Playoffs.

1942
November 22 – The Steelers defeat the Chicago Cards 19-3 to clinch their first winning season in team history.

1944
The Pittsburgh Steelers merge with the Chicago Cardinals (Card-Pitt) as many rosters were still depleted due to World War II.

STEELERS History

1960s Buddy Parker was named head coach in 1957 and over the next eight years he led the Steelers to five non-losing seasons. Hall of Fame quarterback Bobby Layne quarterbacked the team through three of those campaigns, leading the Steelers to a 9-5 mark and a playoff game versus Detroit in 1962, which the Steelers lost 17-10. Parker completed his tenure with a 51-48-6 record and ranks fourth among all-time Steelers coaches for career wins.

On October 25, 1964, the Steelers made team history when they retired jersey No. 70 in honor of former defensive tackle Ernie Stautner. Stautner, who was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1969, remains the only Steelers player to have his jersey retired.

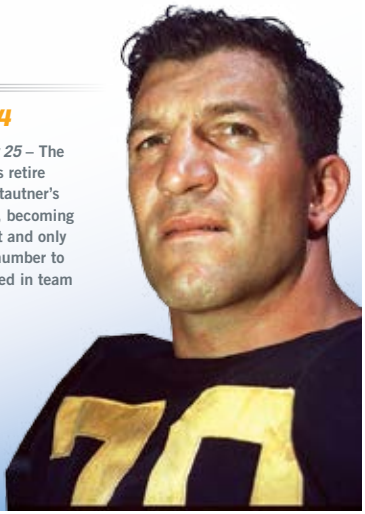

Brief head coaching stints by Mike Nixon in 1965 and Bill Austin from 1966-68 preceded the hiring of 37-year-old Chuck Noll on January 27, 1969. Noll began to rebuild the Steelers through the draft, starting with the defense when he selected defensive tackle Joe Greene with his first choice in 1969. Today, Greene is a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

1970s A 1-13 record in 1969 gave the Steelers the first overall choice in the 1970 draft, with which Noll addressed the offense by selecting quarterback Terry Bradshaw, another Hall of Famer, after the Steelers won the first selection by winning a coin toss with the Chicago Bears. Cornerback Mel Blount was added in the third round that year, followed by linebacker Jack Ham in 1971 and running back Franco Harris in 1972. In all, Noll drafted 10 players who are now enshrined in the Hall of Fame including three in his first 20 picks and four of his first 38.

Two significant changes took place in 1970. The Steelers moved from the NFL Century Division to the AFC Central with the merger of the American Football League and the NFL. The Steelers also moved into a new home as Three Rivers Stadium opened. Previously, the Steelers had played home games at Forbes Field from 1933-57 and at both Forbes Field and Pitt Stadium from 1958-63. From 1964-69 the Steelers played at Pitt Stadium until Three Rivers opened in 1970.

Gradual improvement in the early 1970s resulted in the team's first division title in 1972 with an 11-3 record. In the first playoff game at Three Rivers the Steelers defeated the Oakland Raiders, 13-7, with Franco Harris' "Immaculate Reception" in the final minute. Despite a 21-17 loss the following week to the undefeated Miami Dolphins, the Steelers had reached a new plateau.

1964

October 25 – The Steelers retire Ernie Stautner's No. 70, becoming the first and only jersey number to be retired in team history.

1970

STEELERS History

SUPER BOWL X, Steelers 21, Cowboys 17

It took 40 years for the Steelers to finally win their first division title, but over the next decade they achieved a level of success unprecedented in professional football.

In 1973 the Steelers won a wild card playoff berth with a 10-4 record. Oakland avenged their loss from the previous year, however, with a 33-14 defeat of the Steelers in the playoffs.

The Steelers won their first of six consecutive AFC Central titles in 1974 and marched past Buffalo (32-14) and Oakland (24-13) en route to their first Super Bowl appearance in Super Bowl IX. The fierce Pittsburgh defense led the way to a 16-6 victory over the Minnesota Vikings, and Art Rooney was presented the Vince Lombardi Trophy for the first time.

In 1975 the Steelers won 11 straight games to finish 12-2 and claim their second consecutive division crown. After defeating Baltimore (28-10) and Oakland (16-10) in the playoffs, the Steelers became the third team in NFL history, joining Green Bay and Miami, to win back-to-back Super Bowls with a 21-17 defeat of the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl X.

The 1976 Steelers struggled to a 1-4 start before reeling off nine straight victories, including five shutouts, to win the division with a 10-4 mark. They defeated Baltimore 40-14 in the playoffs, but lost to Oakland, 24-7, after both starting running backs, Franco Harris and Rocky Bleier, were injured. The following year the Steelers dropped a 34-21 decision to Denver in the first round of the playoffs after posting a 9-5 regular-season record.

In 1978 the Steelers made history after a league-best 14-2 regular season and playoff wins versus Denver (33-10) and Houston (34-5). Their 35-31 Super Bowl XIII win versus Dallas made the Steelers the first team to win three Super Bowls.

Yet another standard was set the following year when the 1979 Steelers defeated the Los Angeles Rams, 31-19, in Super Bowl XIV to make them the first team in history to win four Super Bowls and the only team to win back-to-back Super Bowls twice. The Super Bowl victory followed a 12-4 regular season and playoff wins versus Miami (34-14) and Houston (27-13). With six consecutive AFC Central crowns, eight straight years of playoff appearances and four Super Bowl championships, the Steelers were tagged the "Team of the Decade" for the 1970s.

STEELERS History

1980s As the 1980s opened the Steelers stumbled, failing to make the playoffs in 1980 and 1981 with records of 9-7 and 8-8.

In 1982 the Steelers celebrated the team's 50th anniversary by qualifying for the playoffs with a 6-3 finish in a strike-interrupted season. During the season an anniversary banquet was held to commemorate the team's first 50 seasons and to honor the Steelers' all-time team as selected by fan voting. Thousands of fans were attracted to Pittsburgh for a week of activities and exhibits before the anniversary season was ended by San Diego's 31-28 win in the playoffs. This would be the last playoff game at Three Rivers until the 1992 season, a span of 10 years.

The 1983 Steelers won their eighth division title with a 10-6 record, but fell in the postseason, 38-10, to the Los Angeles Raiders. The following year the Steelers won their ninth division crown and the team advanced to the AFC Championship game with a 24-17 playoff win at Denver. A 45-28 loss to Miami in the AFC Championship game prevented the Steelers from a fifth Super Bowl appearance.

The Steelers' streak of 13 consecutive non-losing seasons came to an end in 1985 with a 7-9 finish, followed by a 6-10 record in 1986. Playoff hopes remained alive in 1987 until the Steelers lost their last two games to finish 8-7 during the strike-shortened season.

In 1988 the team suffered through its worst campaign in 19 years with a 5-11 record. The next season got off to a similar start with losses of 51-0 and 41-10 in the first two games as the offense failed to score in the first month of the season. But the young team fought back to finish 9-7 and earn a wild card playoff berth on the season's final weekend. An exciting 26-23 overtime playoff win in Houston was followed by a heartbreaking 24-23 divisional playoff loss at Denver in which the Steelers led until the final minutes.

1990s A 9-7 finish in 1990 left the Steelers in a three-way tie for the AFC Central lead, but they were eliminated from playoff contention by a 2-4 division record. The 1991 team finished second in the division despite a 7-9 record, winning the last two games under Noll at home against the Cincinnati Bengals and Cleveland Browns.

On December 26, 1991 Noll announced his retirement from football after 39 consecutive seasons, the last 23 as the Steelers' head coach, which made him one of only four men to coach the same team for 23 consecutive years. He left as the fifth-winningest coach in NFL history with an overall record of 209-156-1, and as the only coach to win four Super Bowls. Noll was rewarded in 1993 with his election to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility.

A new era began in 1992 with the retirement of Noll and the arrival of 34-year-old Bill Cowher, the National Football League's youngest head coach at the time he assumed control. In the first season of the new era, the Steelers won the AFC Central division crown for the first time since 1984 with an 11-5 record. While the team enjoyed new-found success, Cowher was recognized by the Associated Press as the NFL's Coach of the Year and six Steelers played in the Pro Bowl, the most in more than a decade.

Under Cowher the Steelers became the first AFC team since the 1970 merger to claim its 10th division title. Their 11-5 record equaled the best in the conference and gave the Steelers home field advantage throughout the playoffs. However, in the first postseason game at Three Rivers in exactly 10 years, the Steelers were defeated by eventual AFC champion Buffalo, 24-3.

Steelers History

In 1992, 34-year-old Bill Cowher became the National Football League's youngest head coach at the time. In his first season, the Steelers won the AFC Central division crown for the first time since 1984.

In 1993, the Steelers earned a wild card playoff berth, marking their first consecutive playoff appearances since the 1983-84 seasons. A 9-7 record was good for second place in the division, but the season ended in a 27-24 overtime loss at Kansas City in the AFC Wild Card game.

The 1994 Steelers won seven of their final eight regular-season games for their strongest finish since 1978. They captured their second division title in three years with an AFC-best 12-4 record. After a 29-9 victory over the Cleveland Browns in the first round of the playoffs, Pittsburgh hosted it's first AFC Championship game since 1979. The game went down to the wire and the Steelers lost to the San Diego Chargers, 17-13.

1995 AFC Championship, Steelers 20, Colts 16

At 38, Bill Cowher became the youngest head coach to lead his team to a Super Bowl in 1995. Along the way, Cowher's team captured their third AFC Central division title in four years, made their fourth straight playoff appearance and won the Steelers' first AFC title since 1979. After a first-round bye, they defeated the Buffalo Bills (40-21) and the Indianapolis Colts (20-16), before losing to the Dallas Cowboys, 27-17, in Super Bowl XXX in Tempe, Ariz.

In 1996, the Steelers finished 10-6 and earned their fifth consecutive trip to the playoffs. Cowher ended the season with 57 career victories, ranking him as the second winningest coach in team history, behind his predecessor Noll.

The Steelers captured their fourth consecutive AFC Central title in 1997 while posting an 11-5 record. They were one play away from earning their sixth Super Bowl appearance but lost to Denver, 24-21, in the AFC Championship game.

In 1998, the Steelers finished a disappointing 7-9, losing their last five regular-season games and missing the playoffs for the first time under Bill Cowher.

The Steelers suffered their second consecutive losing season in 1999, when their record fell to 6-10.

STEELERS History

2000s After starting the 2000 season with a 0-3 record, the Steelers rebounded to finish the year at 9-7 and barely missed the playoffs.

However, 2000 will be remembered most for being the final season for the Steelers at Three Rivers Stadium. The Steelers were 4-4 during their final season at Three Rivers Stadium, including victories in four of their final six home games. The Steelers won their final game at Three Rivers, 24-3, against the Washington Redskins on Dec. 16.

The Steelers finished 31 seasons at Three Rivers Stadium (1970-2000) with a 182-73 home record, including the postseason. The Steelers recorded their largest regular-season home attendance figures (440,428) since 1998 in the final season, including a season-high 58,183 fans during the final game in stadium history.

The Steelers began a new era in team history in 2001 with the opening of their new stadium, Heinz Field. The Steelers posted an AFC-best 13-3 regular-season record, including a 7-1 mark at home, and advanced to the AFC Championship Game.

The inaugural game at Heinz Field was originally scheduled to be a nationally televised Sunday Night game on Sept. 16. However, the September 11 terrorist attacks on America forced the NFL to postpone all games that weekend — which were eventually rescheduled for the end of the season. As a result, the Steelers opened Heinz Field on Sunday, Oct. 7 with a 16-7 win against the Cincinnati Bengals.

The Steelers defeated the defending Super Bowl Champion Baltimore Ravens, 27-10, in the AFC Divisional Playoffs, in the first-ever postseason game played at Heinz Field. However, they suffered a disappointing 24-17 loss at home in the AFC Championship Game to the eventual Super Bowl-champion New England Patriots.

After a 0-2 start in 2002, the Steelers rallied to make the playoffs for the second consecutive season. However, the team's Super Bowl hopes ended when they lost, 34-31, in overtime to the Tennessee Titans on the road.

The Steelers began the 2003 season with a 34-15 victory against AFC North rival Baltimore Ravens. However, the team never regained that magic and finished the season with a 6-10 record and missed the playoffs for the first time in three years.

The Steelers set a team record in 2004 by becoming the first AFC team to win 15 games (15-1) in the regular season. They ultimately advanced to the AFC Championship Game where they lost to the New England Patriots, 41-27. Nine Steelers were selected to play in the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl, the team's most since the 1979 season.

Pittsburgh found itself sitting at 7-5 after 12 games in 2005, but it rallied to win its final four regular-season games to earn the AFC's sixth seed in the playoffs. The Steelers then won an unprecedented three straight road playoff games to gain a berth in Super Bowl XL in Detroit versus the Seattle Seahawks.

MIKE TOMLIN was hired on January 22, 2007.

The Steelers captured their fifth Super Bowl title with a 21-10 victory over the Seahawks as wide receiver Hines Ward was named MVP, finishing with five receptions for 123 yards. Ward also hauled in a game-clinching 43-yard TD pass from Antwaan Randle El on a gadget play midway through the fourth quarter.

The 2006 season saw the Bill Cowher era come to an end with the Steelers finishing the season winning six of their final eight games to post an 8-8 record on the year.

On January 5, 2006, Bill Cowher resigned as Steelers head coach with a 161-99-1 overall record, second-best in team history.

The Steelers hired 34-year old Mike Tomlin as the team's coach. Tomlin was the NFL's youngest head coach at the time he was hired on Jan. 22, 2007.

Tomlin became the second first-year coach in team history to make the playoffs. The Steelers finished with a 10-6 overall record and won the AFC North division title.

Mike Tomlin became the first coach in franchise history to win a division title in each of his first two seasons when the Steelers captured their second consecutive AFC North division title with a 12-4 record. They went on to defeat the San Diego Chargers and Baltimore Ravens to gain a berth in Super Bowl XLIII in Tampa, Florida versus the Arizona Cardinals.

The Steelers became the first NFL franchise to capture six Super Bowl titles when they defeated the Cardinals, 27-23. With the victory, Head Coach Mike Tomlin became the youngest coach to win a Super Bowl in NFL history. Wide receiver Santonio Holmes was named MVP after hauling in the game-winning six-yard touchdown pass from Ben Roethlisberger with 35 seconds remaining in regulation.

The Steelers added to their legacy, making it all the way to Super Bowl XLV after a 12-4 record during the 2010 season. The Steelers though could not overcome an early 18-point deficit and fell to the Green Bay Packers 31-25. Despite the loss, the Steelers still hold the NFL record for most Super Bowl victories with six.

SUPER BOWL IX — PITTSBURGH 16 MINNESOTA 6

JANUARY 12, 1975 TULANE STADIUM (80,997)

NEW ORLEANS — The Steelers made their first appearance in the Super Bowl and captured their first NFL Championship with a 16-6 victory.

The veteran Vikings, meanwhile, had been to the Super Bowl twice before. The Vikings had a savvy leader in QB Fran Tarkenton. The Steelers had a strong defense but their quarterback, Terry Bradshaw, was unproven.

The first half was dominated by defense. Pittsburgh concentrated on the middle of the Minnesota offensive line. One defensive tackle, Ernie Holmes, played over Vikings' C Mick Tingelhoff, while the other tackle, Joe Greene, lined up at an angle pointed directly at Tingelhoff. Holmes sometimes took on the Vikings' center directly, allowing Greene to knife through and pursue Tarkenton. At other times, Greene would smash into Tingelhoff while Holmes looped behind him.

The only score in the first half was a safety registered by the Pittsburgh Steelers. Fran Tarkenton fumbled a handoff to Dave Osborn, scrambled to recover the ball in the end zone, and was downed by Pittsburgh DE Dwight White.

Leading 2-0, Pittsburgh kicked to Minnesota to open the second half and the Vikings' Bill Brown fumbled and Marv Kellum recovered for Pittsburgh at the Minnesota 30. The Steelers took four plays to go the distance, with Franco Harris taking the ball in from the nine.

Harris was named game MVP. He ran for 158 yards on 34 tries, while Rocky Bleier added 65 yards on 17 carries. Minnesota, meanwhile, managed only 17 yards rushing.

Denied on the ground, the Vikings weren't much better in the air. Tarkenton, under constant pressure from Greene, Holmes, White, and L.C. Greenwood, completed only 11-of-26 attempts for 102 yards—an average of fewer than four yards per pass.

Despite their dominance, Pittsburgh's 9-0 lead was far from safe, and it narrowed to 9-6 in the final quarter when Matt Blair blocked Bobby Walden's punt, and Terry Brown recovered it in the end zone.

After that touchdown, Pittsburgh put the game on ice with a drive that began on its 34. The big play of the drive was a 30-yard toss from Bradshaw to Larry Brown, who later scored the final TD.

Soon after the ensuing kickoff, Pittsburgh's Mike Wagner intercepted a Tarkenton pass, and the Steelers held possession until the game was nearly over.

SUPER BOWL X — PITTSBURGH 21 — DALLAS 17

JANUARY 18, 1976 MIAMI ORANGE BOWL (80,197)

MIAMI — What were, at the time, the two most popular teams in the NFL met in Super Bowl X, and the contrast between their styles was as great as the hue of their jerseys.

The glitzy, white-clad Dallas Cowboys—"America's Team"—combined a high-tech offense and a state-of-the-art Flex Defense to put on a dazzling show each Sunday. They were easy to like, and for once, they even had something of an underdog aura, having reached the Super Bowl as a Wild Card team. The black-clad Pittsburgh Steelers, out to defend their Super Bowl victory of the year before, lived by a Steel-hard defense occasionally spelled by a grind-it-out running attack that would have been at home in the NFL of the 1930s.

The Cowboys struck first when Roger Staubach zeroed in on Drew Pearson for a 29-yard touchdown pass.

Before the end of the quarter, Pittsburgh evened the score on a seven-yard pass from Terry Bradshaw to TE Randy Grossman. Setting up the score was a 32-yard pass to Lynn Swann, whose health was questionable because of a concussion he had suffered in the AFC Championship Game. Swann outleaped a Dallas defender, then magically kept both feet inside the sideline to make the catch.

Dallas reclaimed the lead at 10-7 only 15 seconds into the second quarter when Toni Fritsch booted a 36-yard field goal.

Later, Pittsburgh's Roy Gerela, playing at less than 100 percent because of a cracked rib he suffered making a tackle on the opening kickoff, shanked a field-goal try and Dallas went to the locker room with a 10-7 lead.

Defense continued to dominate in the scoreless third quarter. Pittsburgh sacked Staubach seven times during the game and forced him to scramble on numerous occasions. Moreover, they pressured him into an uncharacteristic three interceptions.

One of the interceptions set up another field-goal try by Gerela, but he pulled it left from 33 yards. Dallas S Cliff Harris mockingly patted him on the helmet, only to be unceremoniously dumped on his hip pads by irate Pittsburgh LB Jack Lambert. The inspired Steelers dominated after that.

In the fourth quarter, Steelers' reserve FB Reggie Harrison blocked Mitch Hoopes's punt. The ball rolled through the end zone for a safety to cut the Cowboys' lead to 10-9. Gerela, who'd donned a corset to protect his ribs, regained his kicking touch with field goals of 36 and 18 yards to put the Steelers in front 15-10.

With 3:02 left in the game, Bradshaw lofted a long pass to game MVP Swann, who caught the ball at the five and took it over the goal line to complete a 64-yard lightning strike. Swann finished the day with 161 yards on four catches, a 40.3 average-per-catch. Gerela missed the extra point.

It took Staubach only 1:14 to get the touchdown back, completing a drive with a 34-yard bulls-eye to Percy Howard—the only pass Howard caught during his entire career.

Terry Hanratty replaced Bradshaw, still woozy from the hit suffered after his touchdown pass to Swann, but the Steelers were stalled on a fourth-and-9 at the Dallas 41 with almost a minute and a half to go. Coach Noll feared a blocked kick and called for a Rocky Bleier run that gained only two yards. Noll was gambling that his defense could stop the Cowboys.

Trailing only 21-17, Staubach had the ball back with more time than he usually needed to negotiate 61 yards. The Cowboys reached Pittsburgh's 38. With five seconds left, Staubach launched his final pass into the end zone. Steelers' S Mike Wagner batted the ball, which was intercepted by S Glen Edwards and the Steelers had their second consecutive Super Bowl victory.

SUPER BOWL XIII — PITTSBURGH 35 DALLAS 31

JANUARY 21, 1979 MIAMI ORANGE BOWL (78,656)

MIAMI — This was more than just the first rematch in Super Bowl history: It re-staged what many still consider the most enjoyable and dramatic Super Bowl battle to that point. Opportunity—recognizing it and capitalizing on it—was the theme. Failure to embrace it would play a hand too. It was the Steelers, though, who managed a 35-31 victory.

Dallas had its chances. The Cowboys took a 14-7 lead in the second quarter when linebacker Mike Hegman simply took the ball away from Steelers' QB Terry Bradshaw and ran 37 yards to score. But Bradshaw countered immediately with a 75-yard touchdown strike to John Stallworth.

In the third quarter, trailing 21-14, Dallas marched from its 42 to the Steelers' 10. On third-and-three, Cowboys' QB Roger Staubach saw TE Jackie Smith alone in the end zone. Smith slipped and fell reaching for Staubach's pass and Dallas settled for a 27-yard field goal.

Pittsburgh scored two touchdowns early in the fourth quarter—a 22-yard run by Franco Harris and an 18-yard pass from Bradshaw to Swann. Harris' score followed a pass-interference call against Dallas CB Benny Barnes, who was covering Swann. The mistake cost the Cowboys 33 yards. Dallas did score touchdowns with 2:27 and 22 seconds to play, on passes from Staubach to TE Billy Joe Dupree and Butch Johnson, but Pittsburgh held on to win, 35-31. The two teams set a Super Bowl record for points scored.

With the victory, the Steelers became the first team to win three Super Bowls.

PITTSBURGH 31 LOS ANGELES 19

JANUARY 20, 1980 ROSE BOWL STADIUM (103,985)

PASADENA, Calif. — There was a moment of heroism and self-sacrifice when an old warrior, Los Angeles Rams' DE Jack Youngblood, announced his intention to play in his team's first Super Bowl despite a fractured leg.

There was a rush of "What if?" euphoria as the underdog Rams took a 19-17 lead into the fourth quarter.

And there was cold reality: Pittsburgh, a team with as much patience as talent, struck quickly and surely for two touchdowns in the fourth quarter and it was over. The 31-19 victory was the Steelers' fourth in the Super Bowl in only six seasons.

The signature image of Super Bowl XIV is of Steelers WR John Stallworth at the Rams' 32, looking back over his head for a lofty Terry Bradshaw pass, catching it in stride just over the outstretched arms of Rams' CB Rod Perry, and continuing into the end zone for a 73-yard touchdown.

The Steelers had taken the lead and then surrendered it in the third quarter. Bradshaw hit WR Lynn Swann over the middle for a 47-yard score. The Rams came back with a 24-yard halfback pass from Lawrence McCutcheon to Ron Smith that made it 19-17 before Bradshaw-to-Stallworth put Pittsburgh ahead for good.

Los Angeles intercepted Bradshaw three times, but it was the Steelers' lone interception—by Jack Lambert—that punctuated the ending. With the score 24-19 and the Rams driving, Lambert intercepted a pass from QB Vince Ferragamo at the Pittsburgh 14.

For the second year in a row, Bradshaw was named the game's most valuable player after passing for 309 yards and two touchdowns.

DALLAS 27 PITTSBURGH 17

JANUARY 28, 1996 SUN DEVIL STADIUM (76,347)

TEMPE, Ariz. — After producing 10 lopsided outcomes in its last 12 editions, the Super Bowl was due for some drama. Pittsburgh was up to the task and made a game of it, but the game turned on two interceptions by the game's Most Valuable Player, Dallas CB Larry Brown as the Steelers fell to the Cowboys, 27-17.

The first of Brown's interceptions came midway through the third quarter. No Steelers receiver was within 10 yards when Brown accepted Neil O'Donnell's misfired pass at the Cowboys' 38 and returned it 44 yards to the Steelers' 18. Troy Aikman's pass to Michael Irvin took Dallas to the one, and Emmitt Smith scored to give the Cowboys a 20-7 lead.

The Steelers made it 20-10 with Norm Johnson's 46-yard field goal, and then recovered an onside kick. They reduced the gap to 20-17 when Bam Morris scored from the one with 6:36 to play. With 4:15 left, Pittsburgh had the ball again at its 32 after forcing Dallas to punt.

Two plays later, Brown intercepted O'Donnell at the Steelers' 39 and returned it to the six. Smith scored from the four yard-line two plays later, and the Cowboys had locked up their record-tying fifth Super Bowl. The Steelers never led, and Dallas scored on its first three possessions— a three-yard pass from Aikman to tight end Jay Novacek and two field goals by Chris Boniol—for a 13-0 lead. Shortly before halftime, the Steelers made it 13-7 when O'Donnell threw a six-yard touchdown pass to Yancey Thigpen.

The statistical irony of the day was that O'Donnell entered the game as the NFL's career leader in fewest interceptions per pass attempt. On the game's final play, he was intercepted for the third time.

PITTSBURGH 21 SEATTLE 10

FEBRUARY 5, 2006 FORD FIELD (68,206)

DETROIT — Pittsburgh won its fifth Super Bowl title as it captured a 21-10 victory over the Seattle Seahawks at Ford Field. The Steelers' fifth title matched the most in NFL history (S.F. 49ers and Dallas Cowboys).

Backed by a predominantly Pittsburgh crowd, the Steelers were led by Super Bowl MVP Hines Ward, who finished with a game-high 123 receiving yards on five catches (24.6 avg.) with one touchdown.

Pittsburgh struggled offensively in the first quarter as it failed to gain a first down, but found itself down only 3-0 after Seattle's Josh Brown booted a 47-yard field goal with 22 seconds remaining in the opening period.

The Steelers' offense came to life briefly on their first drive of the second quarter, but it was stalled as QB Ben Roethlisberger was picked off by the Seahawks' S Michael Boulware.

Pittsburgh's defense continued to buckle down and halt any Seattle chances of extending its lead throughout the second quarter.

The Steelers finally got on the board late in the half as Roethlisberger dove into the end zone for a one-yard touchdown run, giving Pittsburgh a 7-3 halftime lead. It was his second postseason rushing touchdown and the first-ever by a Steelers' quarterback in a Super Bowl.

Pittsburgh stretched its lead to 14-3 on the second play of the second half as RB Willie Parker darted 75 yards for a score. The 75-yard run was the longest in Super Bowl history, surpassing L.A. Raider Marcus Allen's 74-yard run against Washington in Super Bowl XVIII.

After a missed field goal by Brown on Seattle's first drive of the second half, the Steelers appeared on the verge of breaking the game open by driving to the Seahawks' seven-yard line on the ensuing drive. However, Roethlisberger threw an interception at the four-yard line to Kelly Herndon, which he returned 76 yards to the Pittsburgh 20. Three plays later Seattle scored on a 16-yard pass from QB Matt Hasselbeck to TE Jerramy Stephens to cut the lead to 14-10.

The Seahawks had an opportunity to take the lead early in the fourth quarter before Hasselbeck was picked off by CB Ike Taylor at the Steelers' five-yard line. Taylor finished with a team-best seven tackles.

Pittsburgh all but sealed the game on a gadget play. WR Antwaan Randle El took a reverse handoff and threw a 43-yard strike to Ward, pushing the Pittsburgh lead to 21-10 with 8:56 left in the game. Randle El's touchdown pass was the first by a wide receiver in Super Bowl history.

The Steelers' defense clamped down on the final two Seattle possessions to post the victory. Pittsburgh's defense racked up three sacks.

Roethlisberger became the youngest starting quarterback to win a Super Bowl and finished 9-of-21 for 123 yards. Parker finished with a team-high 93 yards on 10 carries, while RB Jerome Bettis added 43 yards on 14 rushes.

PITTSBURGH 27 ARIZONA 23

FEBRUARY 1, 2009 RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (70,774)

TAMPA — Trailing by three points with only 2:30 left in the fourth quarter, QB Ben Roethlisberger led the Steelers on an eight-play, 78-yard scoring drive, punctuated by a six-yard touchdown pass to WR Santonio Holmes to clinch their NFL-record sixth Lombardi Trophy with a 27-23 victory over the Arizona Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII.

Pittsburgh, which led most of the evening, struck first after Arizona deferred the opening kick. K Jeff Reed booted an 18-yard field goal on the opening drive to make it 3-0.

RB Gary Russell increased that lead to 10-0 when he plunged in from one-yard out early in the second quarter. Arizona answered that score as QB Kurt Warner hit TE Ben Patrick in the back of the end zone on a one-yard scoring strike to cut the Pittsburgh lead to 10-7.

Arizona appeared as if they were going to take their first lead late in the first half, but LB James Harrison intercepted Warner at the goal-line, raced 100 yards and dove into the end zone with two Cardinals on his back for the longest play in Super Bowl history, and a 17-7 advantage at the half.

A 21-yard field goal by Reed in the third quarter upped the lead to 20-7.

Arizona got back onto the scoreboard midway through the fourth quarter as Warner tossed another one-yard score, this time to WR Larry Fitzgerald, cutting the Steelers' lead to 20-14. A costly holding penalty in the end zone against Steelers' C Justin Hartwig gave the Cardinals a safety, further decreasing the Steelers' advantage to 20-16.

On the second play following the ensuing free kick, Warner found Fitzgerald on a 64-yard scoring strike through the middle of the Steelers' defense to give Arizona its first lead of the night, 23-20.

The Steelers were backed up to their own 12-yard line on the next drive, but Roethlisberger promptly completed four-of-six passes, three to Holmes, including a 40-yarder that moved the ball to the Arizona six. On second-and-goal, Roethlisberger threaded a perfect pass through three defenders and Holmes kept his toes in bounds for a six-yard touchdown reception and a 27-23 Steelers' lead with 35 seconds left.

Arizona had one more chance, but LB LaMarr Woodley sacked Warner, forcing a fumble to essentially end the game.

Holmes was named the game's MVP after catching nine passes for 131 yards (14.6 avg.) with one touchdown. Roethlisberger finished 21-of-30 for 256 yards with one touchdown and one interception.

Defensively, Woodley recorded both Steelers' sacks, giving him two sacks in each of his four postseason games, an NFL record.

GREEN BAY 31 PITTSBURGH 25

FEBRUARY 6, 2011 COWBOYS STADIUM (103,219)

ARLINGTON, Texas — The Steelers could not overcome an early 18-point deficit and fell short in their quest for their seventh Super Bowl victory, losing to the Green Bay Packers 31-25 in Super Bowl XLV.

The Packers struck first when QB Aaron Rodgers found WR Jordy Nelson for a 29-yard touchdown pass late in the first quarter to give Green Bay a 7-0 lead. Only 24 seconds later, Steelers' QB Ben Roethlisberger was picked off by S Nick Collins, who returned it 37 yards for a touchdown to give the Packers a 14-0 lead at the end of the first quarter.

The Steelers scored early in the second quarter when K Shaun Suisham connected from 33 yards to cut the Packers' lead to 14-3. On the Steelers' next possession, Roethlisberger was picked off again, and on the Packers' ensuing drive, Rodgers found WR Greg Jennings for a 21-yard touchdown to put Green Bay ahead 21-3.

The Steelers would cut the lead to 21-10 when WR Hines Ward caught an eight-yard touchdown pass from Roethlisberger late in the first half. Ward finished the game with seven catches for 78 yards and one touchdown.

Pittsburgh cut the lead to 21-17 in the third quarter when RB Rashard Mendenhall scored from eight yards out. Mendenhall finished with a game-high 63 yards rushing and one touchdown.

The Steelers' defense forced the Packers to punt on every third-quarter possession, and the offense looked to take the lead. However, on the first play of the fourth quarter, Mendenhall fumbled and Green Bay recovered. The Packers marched down the field and Rodgers found Jennings again, this time for an eight-yard score, increasing their lead to 28-17. Rodgers finished the game with 304 yards passing with three touchdowns and no interceptions.

With 7:34 left in the fourth quarter, Roethlisberger found WR Mike Wallace for a 25-yard touchdown pass, and with a two-point conversion, the Steelers were only down 28-25.

On the Packers' next drive, K Mason Crosby connected from 23 yards out to give Green Bay a six-point lead. The Steelers still had time, taking over with two minutes left in the game, but they failed to convert a fourth-and-five from their own 33-yard line, allowing Green Bay to win their fourth Super Bowl.
